

Think of Me

to the tune of "Think of Me" from Phantom of the Opera

Think of me when you explain just what the matzah means.
Remember me when you combine salt water with your greens.
Think of how your lives would be today if you were still in slavery.
When you're sitting at your seder, spare a thought for me.

Think of me when you are drinking your four cups of wine.
Think of me during Dayenu and when you recline.
Think of how you sang with Miriam along the shores of the Red Sea.
When you're sitting at your seder, stop and think of me.

Think of manna dropping in your hand.
And think of how you reached the Promised Land.

Think of me when you recall why you observe this night.
Think of me. Love me with all your heart, your soul, your might.
Because of all the things I did for you when you were in captivity,
There should never be a time when you don't think of me.
