

Anything Goes

to the tune of "Anything Goes" by Cole Porter

In olden days when Pharaoh thundered,
The Hebrews in slav'ry wondered,
Does Heaven know?
When can we go?

A man arose, his name was Moses,
What do you suppose his news was?
To end our woe,
It was time to go!

'Twas under the burning tree
Moses came to be
Man of liberty
Who would help us flee
'Cross the ruddy sea
So miraculously.
Say goodbye to old Pharaoh!

What God proposes, man disposes.
The story of Moses shows us
That, Heaven knows,
Anything goes!
